

As the temperatures dip into the double digits again, an audible sigh of relief can be heard. This is the time of year I look forward to most; changing colors of foliage, snuggly sweatshirts, and pumpkin porter...

It's also a great time to get out and walk around, socialize, catch up with old friends and make some new ones. What better place to do that than The Gallery at el Pedregal, which, coincidentally, is currently featuring art by dhSeadragon Distinctive Designs!

The Gallery at el Pedregal
34505 N. Scottsdale Rd.
2nd floor
Scottsdale, AZ 85266

Open daily 11-6 pm

Every Friday from 4-7 is wine, fine art, and artist demos. The Spotted Donkey at el Pedregal and The Grill at the Boulders Resort supply the wine while you sip and stroll through The Gallery and check out the art and watch the demos.

Did you ever wonder "How did they do that?!" The artists at el Pedregal are happy to explain. October 13, I will be talking about the creative processes that go into the art of dhSeadragon.

Out for a round of golf at the Boulders Resort? Come into The Grill for a light lunch and check out the dhSeadragon art on display.

As the days cool off, I have been spending more time in the studio. Currently in production are a couple more custom dog portraits and several small pieces of art for the Sonoran Small Works Art Show by the Sonoran Arts League.
