The summer months are upon us and it appears my thermometer, at least, will be stuck in the triple digits for the foreseeable future. Sending you and yours COOL thoughts!

An artist reception will be held July 16 from 4-6 PM. I will be on hand at the gallery a number of days throughout the run of the show.

In August, I will be cooling off in beautiful Whidbey Island Washington at the Coupeville Art Festival.

August 12-13, the streets along the scenic Coupeville waterfront will close to vehicles and make way for the finest arts & crafts vendors from across the country. In addition to the booths, there will be a gallery and wine reception, a children's activity area, live entertainment, a beer and wine garden, food, Penn Cove muscles, more Penn Cove muscles, oh, and of course Penn Cove muscles-yummm!

More cool news, September 16 from 8 AM to 2 PM, dhSeadragon will have a booth set up at the Furry Friends Fine Art Festival at the historic Shemer Art Center in the Old Town Scottsdale/Arcadia area of Arizona.

Like a neighborhood party, local vendors and artists will be displaying their animal related goods in the front garden at Shemer. There will be food and drink stands, live entertainment, as well as adoptable pets hoping to find a furever home. Woof!

Here's something else that is pretty cool...dhSeadragon is running an ad in Dogster Magazine in the "Dig It" section. The magazine can be found at most pet stores, feed stores, and pet boutiques. See the ad for my pet portrait promotion.

Here are a few examples of my most recent sculptures and commissions...

It is so cool to be working as an artist, doing what I love to do!
Thank you all for your love and support! Stay COOL!
